Places to Dine in Cardiff

Welcome to Cardiff, Capital of Wales!

Croeso i Gaerdydd, Prifddinas Cymru!

In Cardiff city centre the Brewery Quarter, Mill Lane, St Mary Street and Eastside in St David's, has a range of cuisines available at costs to suit every pocket.

Jamie Oliver have chosen Cardiff as the location for his first restaurant in Wales, which has begun a flurry of big names moving in. Anthony Carluccio's new restaurant, Carluccio's is opening soon in the Cardiff central library building, specialising in authentic Italian cuisine.

The café quarter - Mill Lane, is home to an array of restaurants and bars, featuring South American, Italian and Japanese cuisine. For quality Indian food, take a taste of the Juboraj restaurant serving authentic Bangladeshi cuisine. Around the corner in the Brewery Quarter you can find Spanish, Thai and Portugese. Hard Rock cafe is a rock n' roll restaurant for a rock n' roll city, and has an array of rock memorabilia.

The dedicated restaurant quarter within St David's, Eastside, is home to an array of restaurants and cafés that are new to Wales' capital city, as well as some familiar names. Featuring restaurants and cafés over two floors, Eastside brings contemporary city eating together under one lively and vibrant covered street in the heart of Cardiff.

This brochure contains a small selection of restaurants conveniently located within the city centre.

Pizza Express

"Italian"

All restaurants claim to be passionate about service, but at PizzaExpress we really mean it. We only recruit 'people people' for our front-of-house teams and work hard to give our customers the warm welcome and attentive service they deserve.

Our aim is that every customer leaves PizzaExpress feeling that little bit happier and more relaxed than when they came in.

We want every visit to be a great experience but mistakes do happen and we don't always get it right. Please let us know if your visit didn't come up to scratch so we can try to make it up to you.

Juboraj

“Indian & Pakistani”

The Juboraj restaurants enjoy the very enviable position of being at the pinnacle of Bangladeshi and Indian cuisine in South Wales today.

Our reputation however, extends well beyond the boundaries of Wales; the Juboraj boasts a celebrity client list that any London restaurant would only be too pleased to hold. Just some of the glitterati that have indulged themselves in the Juboraj experience include John Major when he was Prime Minister, two of Europe’s key political figures, Neil and Glenys Kinnock, and even rock legends Tom Jones and Eric Clapton.

“We are constantly evolving to exceed our customers’ expectations - people who demand and expect the very best.”

Zizzi

“Italian”

We love simple Italian cookery - there's nothing tricky about it - pizza, pasta, salads, risotto, carne, pesce (that's meat and fish). It starts with the ingredients – fresh, in season and well prepared. We have signature dishes that have become much-loved classics, but we're also constantly dreaming up new ones.

Our restaurants are run the Italian way - passionate and homely with a little flair. Each one's a bit different in character, architecture, age and feel; think Robert De Niro with a regional accent. Wherever you are, something you can always be assured of is a warm welcome.

Jamie's "Italian"

Inspired by his passion for Italy, Jamie has opened a group of "neighbourhood" restaurants, called Jamie's Italian, offering authentic, affordable and great quality Italian food on the high street. The first restaurant launched in Oxford in 2008:

"The place bustles engagingly with the sound of people relishing fairly priced food ...." The Guardian

... all you need to know about Jamie's Italian – cheeky, practical, good-natured, unpretentious and quality driven .... It shows you can mass produce the flavours of Italy for the happiness of the high street."

The Independent on Sunday.

Jamie's Italian has started with what Italians are most proud of - fantastic, rustic dishes, using recipes that have been tried, tested and loved!

"Pastas are all made on the premises and the truffle tagliatelle was a silky, luxurious treat ..."

Cosmo

“Asian”

The Cosmo adventure began in September 2003, when we launched our first Pan-Asian restaurant in Eastbourne, East Sussex to great acclaim. A rapid expansion soon followed with the opening of successful Cosmo restaurants in Bristol, Swindon, Romford, Coventry, Hastings, Chatham, Tunbridge Wells and Cardiff – each with a unique, contemporary style and identity of their own. And with more sites scheduled to open in the coming year, the future looks very bright for Cosmo.

Known for our great value teppanyaki, Japanese sushi, barbeque and mouth-watering desserts, we specialise in our ever-popular „Eat As Much As You Like’ experience: a fixed price culinary voyage of discovery across nine Pan Asian countries – it is unlimited eating at its tastiest, and Cosmo’s winning formula has been based on using only the freshest and most authentic ingredients to create a feast of exotic Asian flavours on every plate.

Strada

“Italian”

STRADA is all about great quality, freshly prepared pizzas, pastas and risottos served in stylish, contemporary surroundings. The Menu Innovation Network's Menu Innovation and Development Awards (MIDAS) were presented at D&D London's Avenue Restaurant & Bar on Thursday 18th March 2010.

The Menu Innovation Network has been created as a vehicle for group menu development managers and group executive chefs to interact and exchange information and to continually improve and satisfy the demands of consumers eating away from home.

A team of mystery diners and judges, with considerable experience of multi unit disciplined menu operations, had been tasked, over the past six weeks, with deciding the winners in each of the sixteen categories.

Cafe Rouge

“Restaurant”

With a combination of delicious food, great wines and a real ambience, Café Rouge has embodied the style and je ne sais quoi of French dining since it opened way back in 1989.

Now with over 111 sites across the country it's just the place to mull over the morning papers with a cafe au lait and a croissant, pop in for a spot of lunch, share a post-work drink or relax over an evening meal.

Our menu covers a range of French classics from croques and baguettes, ideal for a quick and easy snack, to more substantial fare such as steak frites and boeuf bourguignon. Likewise, our wines are predominately French, many made by lesser known producers, and provide the perfect accompaniment to the food on offer.

If it's been a while since you've paid a visit, we think you'll be surprised by how much you've missed us. No hassle, no rush, no skinny-decaff-double-shot-to-go, just a vibrant atmosphere that moves with your moods throughout the day.

Mimosa Kitchen & Bar

“European”

In 1865 a boat full of Welsh men and their families sailed from Liverpool to Patagonia, southern Argentina, in the hope of creating a new Wales. The tea clipper, named Mimosa, set sail on a two month journey to South America with 159 people, mainly from the Bala area of Wales, on board. Today the population of Patagonia is around 150,000 with 20,000 descended from the Welsh settlers and around 5,000 able to speak Welsh.

Located in the heart of Cardiff Bay, Mimosa Kitchen & Bar has a striking contemporary design, attracting a cosmopolitan mix of drinkers and diners with its bustling yet relaxed ambience.

The modern interior, exemplified by the stunning brushed steel bar and bespoke 5 metre „bean seat‘, is enhanced by the use of natural textures such as Welsh slate, wenge wood, and leather seating.
