Feedback - January 2019

Imperial College O&G Society Conference 2019: Innovation and Advances in Research

Imperial College O&G Society were delighted to announce their annual student conference. This year's programme included talks from Internationally renowned experts in the field of O&G, as well as intellectually-stimulating workshops that provided delegates with a unique experience of the speciality of obstetrics and gynaecology.

In order to further the theme of Research and Innovation, a poster presentation competition was held during the conference. Abstract submissions are now open. One student was selected to deliver a 10-minute oral presentation and further prizes were awarded for the highest-scoring posters.

Individual Comments

The conference was very useful as I have not had much O&G teaching at my university yet. Even though I don't have medical knowledge on this topic I was able to follow.

NM

UCL Medical School , London , United Kingdom

Really useful to have a mix of clinical and research in the morning.

AB

University of Birmingham College of Medical and Dental Sciences , Birmingham , UK

Excellent.

RG

Norwich Medical School, University of East Anglia , Norwich , United Kingdom

At the moment not that relevant to my studies but will be in the future and it's always interesting to learn something new. Especially the workshops were a good experience.

JG

Imperial College London Faculty of Medicine , London , United Kingdom

Well organised. Interesting presentations and useful workshops.

TF

QMUL

Very well organised. Very interesting and relevant content, inspiring speakers.

AA

Imperial College London Faculty of Medicine , London , United Kingdom

It was all done very well, and to a high standard. A range of skills and information about obs/gyn was provided in an educational and fun way. I particularly liked the interactive workshops.

MM

St Georges University of London

Mostly relevant . It was well organised. the workshops were the most appealing to me.

AS

St George's University of London

Very good overall, well organised and well executed with excellent speakers.

GP

Newcastle University Faculty of Medical Sciences , Newcastle upon Tyne , United Kingdom
