

THE OXFORD ELECTIVES CONFERENCE 2016

Time	Event
08:45-09:15	Registration with tea & coffee
09:20-09:30	Welcome Miss Helen Please – Director, Oxford Electives Conference 2016
09:30-10:00	What ethical problems do electives pose? Mr Tim Goodacre – Consultant Plastic Surgeon, Oxford. Previously President of the British Association of Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgeons, which he represented on the Royal College of Surgeons Council and The European Union of Medical Specialists
10:00-10:30	Why go to a developing country? Dr Vicky Lavy – Head of the international ministries office at CMF, London. Founded a paediatric palliative care programme at Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital, Blantyre, Malawi
10:30-10:45	Break with tea & coffee and stalls for students
10:45-11:15	Good medicine in bad places: the challenges of healthcare in conflict and natural disaster Dr Aroop Mozumder – President of the Faculty of Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine, Society of Apothecaries. Researcher at Harris Manchester College, Oxford. Previously RAF medical director and Inspector General for Defence Medicine
11:20-12:20	'How to plan and organise' The Electives Panel discussion with Q&A session Chairperson – Dr Alistair Reed, FY1 Oxford & 2015 Oxford Electives Conference Director Panellists: Oxford-based foundation doctors recently returned from their electives
12:20-13:20	Lunch	12.20 Panellists available in GPEC for further informal discussion over lunch
		12.40 Poster presentation Delegates presenting to stand with posters to discuss with fellow students and judging consultants. All delegates welcome to view and ask questions.
13:30-16:15	Workshop Sessions Session 1: 13:30-14:15 Session 2: 14:30-15:15 Session 3: 15:30-16:15
16:15-16:30	Break with tea & coffee
16:30-17:00	Why global health is relevant for every medical professionals Professor Parveen Kumar, Consultant Physician and Gastroenterologist, London. Previously president of the British Medical Association and the Royal Society of Medicine. Co-founded and co-edited the textbook Clinical Medicine with Dr Michael Clark.
17:00-17:15	Prize Giving and Closing	