National Undergraduate Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery Conference 2019

The University of Glasgow Plastic Surgery Society (UoGPSS) held its first National Plastic Surgery Conference on 13th April 2019, with support from the UK's Plastic Surgery Trainee Association (PLASTA). The conference was tailored towards medical students and aimed to provide undergraduates with an insight into the field of Plastic Surgery.

The day comprised of a series of keynote talks delivered by specialists in the field of Plastic Surgery, as well as practical workshops facilitated by surgical registrars. The conference presented delegates with the opportunity to enhance their understanding of the speciality of Plastic Surgery and develop pertinent surgical skills.

Individual Comments

It was very professional and well organised. It was relevant and was targeted at the appropriate level for medical students (especially since plastics is usually not integrated at all into the curriculum).
