Basic Clinical Skills in Ophthalmology and Ophthalmology Taster Day

This course provided the attendee with an overview and fundamental understanding of ophthalmology, and equipped them with essential skills in ophthalmology examination and assessment. The course was an excellent opportunity to become familiar with various frequently used examination techniques in ophthalmology in order to appropriately assess a patient presenting with an eye complaint. It was aimed at junior specialty trainees and foundation year doctors in ophthalmology as well as GPs and A&E doctors who deal with patients presenting with eye complaints. It was also relevant to junior doctors from other specialities and final year medical students considering a career in ophthalmology.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the course, the delegate was able to:

- o Take a focused ophthalmic case history.
- o Perform a basic, yet thorough, ophthalmic examination.
- o Recognise red flags suggesting an urgent ophthalmic problem in a patient presenting to the General Practitioner or the A&E Department.
