Feedback - October 2022

GUROS Conference 2022: Innovations in Orthopaedics and Rheumatology

The event provided an opportunity for those interested in the field of Orthopaedics and Rheumatology to gain further knowledge and an insight into the speciality.

World-renowned rheumatologists and orthopaedic surgeons delivered captivating talks on the leading edge of innovative research and practice. A wide range of topics were covered, such as robotic arthroplasty, potential treatments for tendinopathy, psoriasis arthritis and more.

The organisers hoped to engage and inspire students and provide the opportunity to discuss, ask questions, socialise and network with experts in their field.

Individual Comments

Everything was very well organised. It was clear that the conference took a lot of effort- especially the workshops, but it was of a very high standard. I especially liked the fact that both workshops were very hands on and on real models with real tools. A nice change from other conferences where the workshops are just other presentations. All the speakers were very engaging. It may have been better to start off the conference with a different talk and place the art therapy one later in the programme?
